Norms for M.Tech. application (after completion of 40 credits with a minimum CPI of 6.5)

M.Tech:

1. The candidate should apply for admission to the M.Tech. programme in the concerned discipline as per the prevailing Institute norms at the time of admission of regular candidates.

2. The candidate should satisfy the admission requirements applicable to M.Tech. programme under sponsored category, and any other prevalent requirments as per department policies.

3. The credit requirements for the M.Tech. programme will be as per the prevailing Institute Norms.

4. The DPGC/ IDPC/ PGC will recommend the place of work and duration for the project, which may be between 1 to 2 years.

5. The project should be presented in stages on par with part-time M.Tech. Students.

6. Candidates should apply to the concerned DPGC/ IDPC/ PGC through CEP for conversion to M.Tech.after completing at least 40 credits. The minimum CPI should be 6.5 at the time of application.

7. DPGC/ IDPC/ PGC will examine the application and see that the courses completed by the candidate in CEP are equivalent to courses recommended for regular M.Tech. Students.

8. DPGC/ IDPC will also recommend a time limit for completion of programme.